

REMOVAL OF DISABILITIES.

RESOLUTION
OF THE
LEGISLATURE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
ASKING
Removal of disabilities.

JANUARY 20, 1873.—Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary and ordered to be printed.

The general assembly of North Carolina do resolve, That the Congress of the United States are respectfully requested to remove the disabilities imposed by the fourteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States on William A. Graham, of Orange County, State of North Carolina; Lawrance S. Baker, of Halifax County, North Carolina; William N. H. Smith, of the city of Raleigh, State of North Carolina; Burton Craige, of Salisbury, Rowan County, North Carolina; David Coleman and James G. Martin, of Buncombe County, North Carolina; D. H. Hill, of Mecklenburgh; James A. Craige, of Rowan; Robert Ransom, of Granville; James H. Hill and George Davis, of New Hanover; William H. McRae, of Montgomery County, and John T. Williams, of Warren; and all other citizens of North Carolina laboring under such disabilities.

Ratified the 4th day of December, A. D. 1872.

○

